Andrews Federal Credit Union Back-to-School Drive Supplies Local Children in Need

Suitland, MD (October 29, 2008) – Andrews Federal Credit Union donated binders, backpacks, crayons, pencils and other school supplies to Princeton Elementary School, Suitland, MD on October 14, 2008 as part of its annual school supply drive.

Andrews Federal began accepting donations in August. Each stateside branch selected a local elementary school in its community and provided school supplies collected from members and staff through donation boxes placed in the local branches. The school supply drive benefited six elementary schools in New Jersey, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

In addition to Princeton Elementary, school supplies were also given to Francis T. Evans Elementary School, Clinton, MD; Willingboro W.R. James Elementary School, Burlington, NJ; Atlantis Elementary School, McGuire AFB, NJ; New Hanover Elementary School, Wrightstown, NJ; and Turner Elementary School, Washington, DC.

One of the largest contributors to the drive was Fleet Reserve Association (FRA), a nonprofit association based in Alexandria, VA, which donated 600 binder notebooks.
