Andrews Federal Credit Union Serves as Sponsor for Military Family Egg Hunt

Suitland, MD (April 29, 2009) – Andrews Federal Credit Union sponsored the 2009 Easter Egg Hunt at the U.S. Army Garrison in Schinnen, The Netherlands. Approximately 500 children attended this event which benefited all U.S. and NATO families associated with the base. Andrews Federal employees were also present to hand out information about college saving, investing, retirement, and other Andrews Federal products and services.

“We really enjoy being a part of the military community at Schinnen Garrison. This type of event is a great way to have fun but also to encourage parents to teach their children sound money management,” says Al Johnson, Andrews Federal Vice President of European Operations. “We will continue to participate in these events and we want our service members to know that Andrews Federal is always ready to meet their financial needs.”

The children were provided coloring books, pencils, and coin holders to encourage them to save money. Andrews Federal also provided children with the first quarter placed in the coin holders to help them start saving.

Lavern Jones, Andrews Federal Schinnen Branch Manager, talks to kids about saving money and gives them free gifts.
