Andrews Federal Credit Union Named 2008 Air Force Credit Union of the Year

Suitland, MD (August 19, 2009) – Andrews Federal Credit Union was selected as the 2008 Air Force Credit Union of the Year. This prestigious award is presented each year by the Department of the Air Force to a credit union that provides exceptional services to an Air Force base community. Andrews Federal received the award at the Defense Credit Union Council's 46th Annual Conference in San Francisco, CA.

Andrews Federal's commitment to financial literacy, tailored products and service offerings, military community support, and relationship with base personnel were all cited in its selection for the award. Andrews Federal also participates in various town hall forums, holds quarterly breakfasts with the First Sergeants Association, sponsors numerous military award programs and events, and supports the annual "Military Saves" campaign.

Andrews Federal provides online education for deployed service members. In addition, service members can obtain 24/7 account information through worldwide international phone and online banking services.

"It is a great honor for Andrews Federal to receive this award," says Chris McDonald, Andrews Federal President & CEO. "Through the outstanding performance of our staff and the clear direction from our Board of Directors, we are able to provide the financial services, community support, and financial education our service members need and expect from Andrews Federal."
