Andrews Federal Serves as Sponsor for the Potomac Job Corps Center's 45th Anniversary Celebration Night at Verizon Center

Suitland, MD (August 21, 2009) – Andrews Federal Credit Union served as a sponsor for the Potomac Job Corps Center Celebration Night during the Washington Mystics game at the Verizon Center. The event celebrated the 45th Anniversary of Potomac Job Corps Center. Andrews Federal also provides ongoing financial education seminars for the center and visits semi-monthly to offer low-cost financial services to the students.

“Andrews Federal was proud to sponsor this Potomac Job Corps Center event,” says Suzanne Curren, Director of Public Relations & Community Development. “We not only provide the students with financial education workshops and member services, but we are also happy to reward students who excel in their job training fields through events like this.”

Potomac Job Corps Center is located in Southwest Washington, DC and is a residential, educational and career technical training program for “at promise” youth ages 16 through 25. To learn more about Potomac Job Corps Center, please visit <http://potomac.jobcorps.gov>.
