Andrews Federal Credit Union Holds Fall Shred Day During Protect Your Identity Week

Suitland, MD (October 29, 2009) – Andrews Federal Credit Union held its bi-annual Shred Day during National Protect Your Identity Week. Close to 200 members and visitors shredded over 11,800 pounds of information at Andrews Federal’s Allentown Road, MD and Burlington, NJ branches.

Over 10 million Americans have fallen victim to identity theft fraud since 2008. In addition to providing a secure place to shred person information, Andrews Federal gave each participant booklets and information to help with identity theft prevention.

“Identity theft is a very serious crime that has been consistently on the rise,” says Suzanne Curren, Andrews Federal’s Director of Public Relations & Community Development. “Andrews Federal will continue to provide the resources and tools to help our members protect their personal documents.”

Shanon Brown, Andrews Federal Training & Human Resources Specialist, stands with James Willoughby at the Burlington, NJ shred day.
