Andrews Federal Credit Union Holds Celebration for Base Community

Suitland, MD (September 2, 2008) – On Saturday August 16th, Andrews Federal Credit Union held a community celebration event at their Andrews Air Force Base branch.

The event was attended by approximately 100 members of the Andrews Air Force Base community and included fun activities for all ages: moon bounce, face painting, carnival games and food. "This event was a fun way to express our appreciation to the service members and their families for their continued support of Andrews Federal Credit Union," commented Rosalind Bishop, Andrews Air Force Base Branch Manager.

In addition to the activities, Andrews Federal handed out financial education materials about their online Education Center and free on-base financial seminars. Service members and their families were also invited to preview and purchase used vehicles through a partnership with Enterprise Car Sales.
