Andrews Federal Credit Union
Dedicates Second Warrior Transition Unit in Wiesbaden

Suitland, MD (September 22, 2008) – On September 5, 2008, the second Warrior Transition Unit (WTU) room sponsored by Andrews Federal Credit Union (Andrews Federal) was dedicated at Wiesbaden Army Garrison. The WTU provides furnishings and all of the amenities of home for soldiers recovering from injuries that require care and rehabilitation ranging from a few months to a year. Some Warriors are able to return to active duty and others receive preparation for the civilian sector.

The second WTU room is a suite, which includes a sleeping area, bathroom, kitchenette, and small living room for a single occupant. Andrews Federal provides the décor within the room as well as supplying linens, toiletries, and laundry items. A commissary gift card is also donated by the credit union for the purchase of food items. "We sponsored the first Warrior Transition Unit earlier in the year and wanted to do more to assist the soldiers returning from Iraq and Afghanistan," commented visiting Andrews Federal President & CEO, Chris McDonald. "The Wiesbaden branch staff continues to make the stay of each Warrior assigned to an Andrews Federal room pleasant by doing special things throughout their stay such as baking cookies, donating calling cards or providing a holiday care package."

The dedication included a ribbon cutting, food, cake, and other refreshments. Mr. McDonald closed the ribbon cutting ceremony by expressing appreciation for the daily sacrifices made by the service members and their families. He also thanked the Andrews Federal European staff, Wiesbaden Army Garrison Command Team, WTU Cadre and Army Community Service staff for making the soldiers comfortable and safe during their stay in the Wiesbaden Army Garrison WTU.
